

It isn't easy . . .

As a leader/administrator in missions, you are very aware of the challenges involved.

You long to make an eternal difference in the lives of individuals in other countries, and you are keenly mindful of the difficulties. There are funding issues, difficulties in maintaining good field relationships, finding the right people. And then that ever-nagging question:

“Are we actually accomplishing what God has in mind?”

Are we missing something?

A lot of energy is being expended. Good people are going out, and reports are coming back of people choosing to follow Jesus! But there are also those questions: “Why can’t the indigenous people who have decided to follow Jesus, make better choices in their personal lives?”

“Why aren’t the people able to better provide for their families?”

“Shouldn’t we be providing some Biblical financial teaching?”

“Even if we wanted to teach financial sustainability, where would we find the teaching material?”

A proven curriculum for your ministry!

Good Steward International is a Bible-based, easily understood financial teaching course. It is designed to connect with those living in ongoing poverty, and is intended to help them develop a sustainable mindset and better provide for their families. Our curriculum has been used in many countries, has a proven track record, and is very effective in changing how people view the resources God has placed in their care.

teaching program, designed to help them successfully operate a small business. We provide the curriculum, the experience, and the ongoing support required to help people rise out of poverty and be productive citizens in their communities. And beyond financial teaching, our curriculum focuses on the basic teachings of the Gospel, showing what it looks like to follow Jesus in daily life.

GSI walks with missions, providing everything they need to start a Biblical financial

What is included?

The curricula provides personal financial teaching and basic business training, as well as interesting stories designed to assist them in putting all this into practice.

- A simple step-by-step formula already at work in nearly 20 developing countries
- Made to work in your field teaching system, local language and currency
- All curriculum and monitoring software for sustainable teaching-based Savings Groups
- All resources and teaching guides may be branded in your own ministry’s brand and name
- Ongoing support to assist your ministry in achieving its goals and objectives

Questions? Visit goodstewardinternational.org or contact us at info@goodstewardinternational.org.